

WORLD WAR II "NAVAJO CODE TALKER" AT 87th ANNUAL MARINE COPRS LEAGUE NATIONAL CONVENTION

Bill Henry Toledo (86 years old) will talk about his life experiences:

- Growing up as a child on the Indian Reservation
- Life as a US Marine
- Battle of Bougainville

He will also have on sale a book titled "Navajo Weapon" by Sally McClain. Marine Toledo is referenced in the book and he will sign copies of books purchased and take photos with you.

Marine Toledo's itinerary is top arrive Tuesday late afternoon/evening and depart Friday morning.

He is scheduled to speak Thursday. Time and place TBA.

At the end of his speech, he has been known to sing the Marines Hymn in both English and Navajo languages!

Ron Medder (L) and Bill Henry Toledo

Our goal is to raise enough funds, from around the Nation, to bring this "WW II Code Talker" to the 2010 convention.

Please write "Navajo Code Talker" in the memo area of your check to ensure the funds are properly disbursed for this event. All checks should be written out to "MCL Det. #260". Please send your donations to:

Ron L. Medder
Sr. Vice Commandant Det. #260
6312 Warwick Drive
Pleasant Garden, N.C. 27313

The preferred deadline to receive donations is 1-July-2010, however they will gladly be accepted after that date as well.

If there are any questions, please forward them on to Ron Medder at:

kachadarms@aol.com

Any additional funds received over and above what is needed will be donated to the Navajo Code Talkers Association.

The cost for bringing Bill Toledo, and his aide, to Greensboro, NC is $1,500. Please help support this event and allow everyone in attendance to experience and share time with a Living Legend! Thank you for your support!
